Senior Class of 1965

Notre Dame High School Clarksburg, West Virginia
Accredited by North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools

Dedication

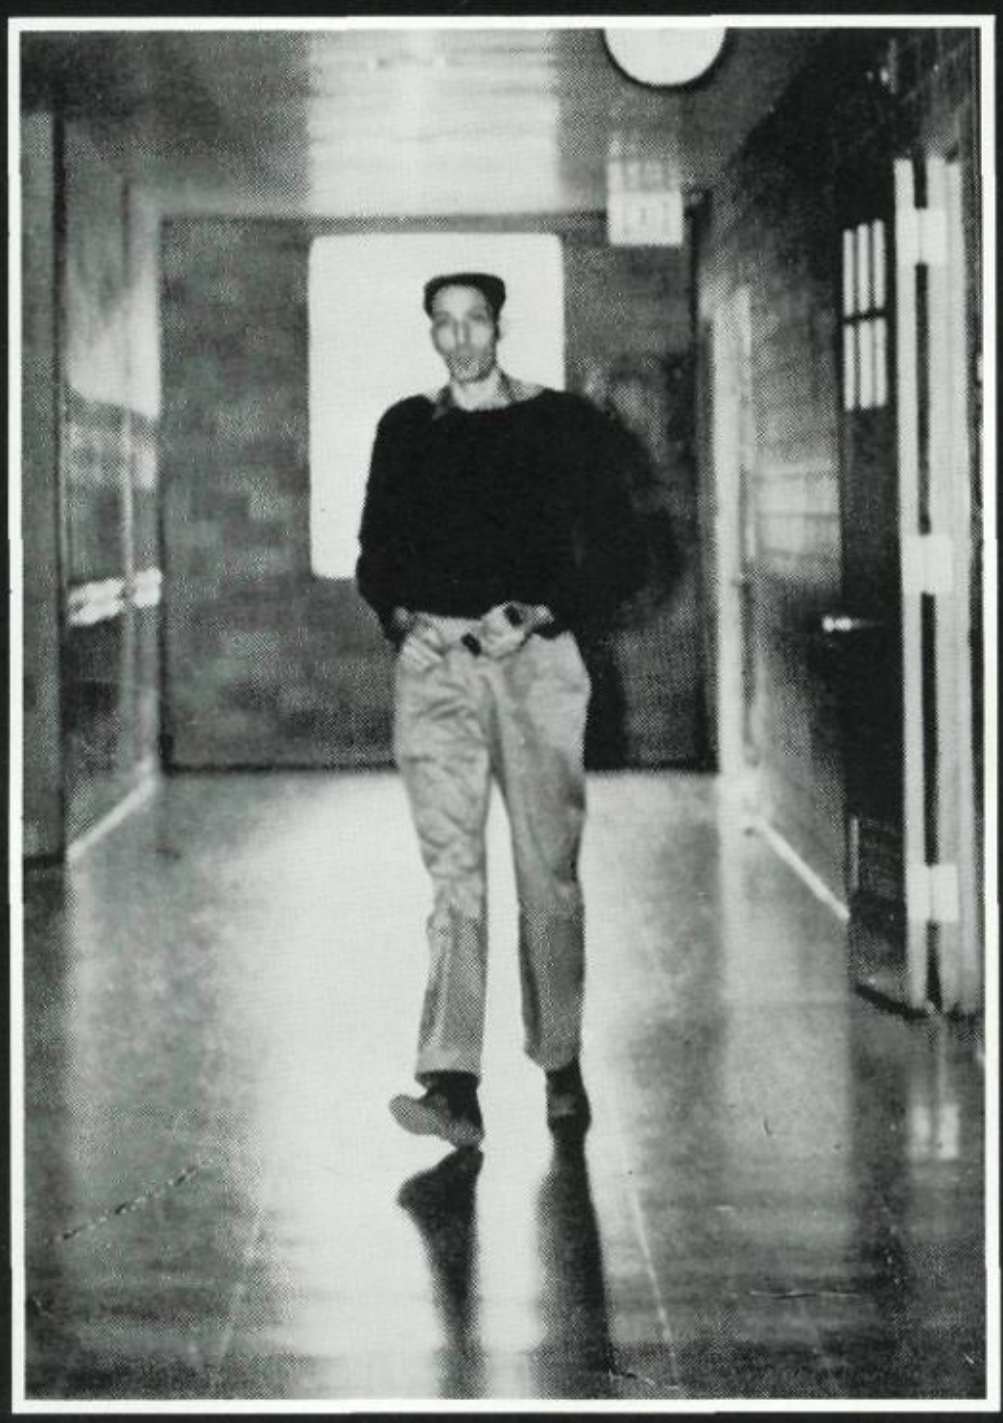
For our dedication we have chosen a man whom we feel can never be amply rewarded for the work he does. He has been the hardworking custodian since the school was built, and worked in the same capacity at the old St. Mary's High School. Through the years he has served as electrician, gardener, janitor, and one-man maintenance crew for the 384 students who come here every day.

Whenever the least little thing goes wrong at Notre Dame, the call goes out to "find Mr. Oliverio" When found, he cheerfully repairs the damage and then goes back to his other duties.

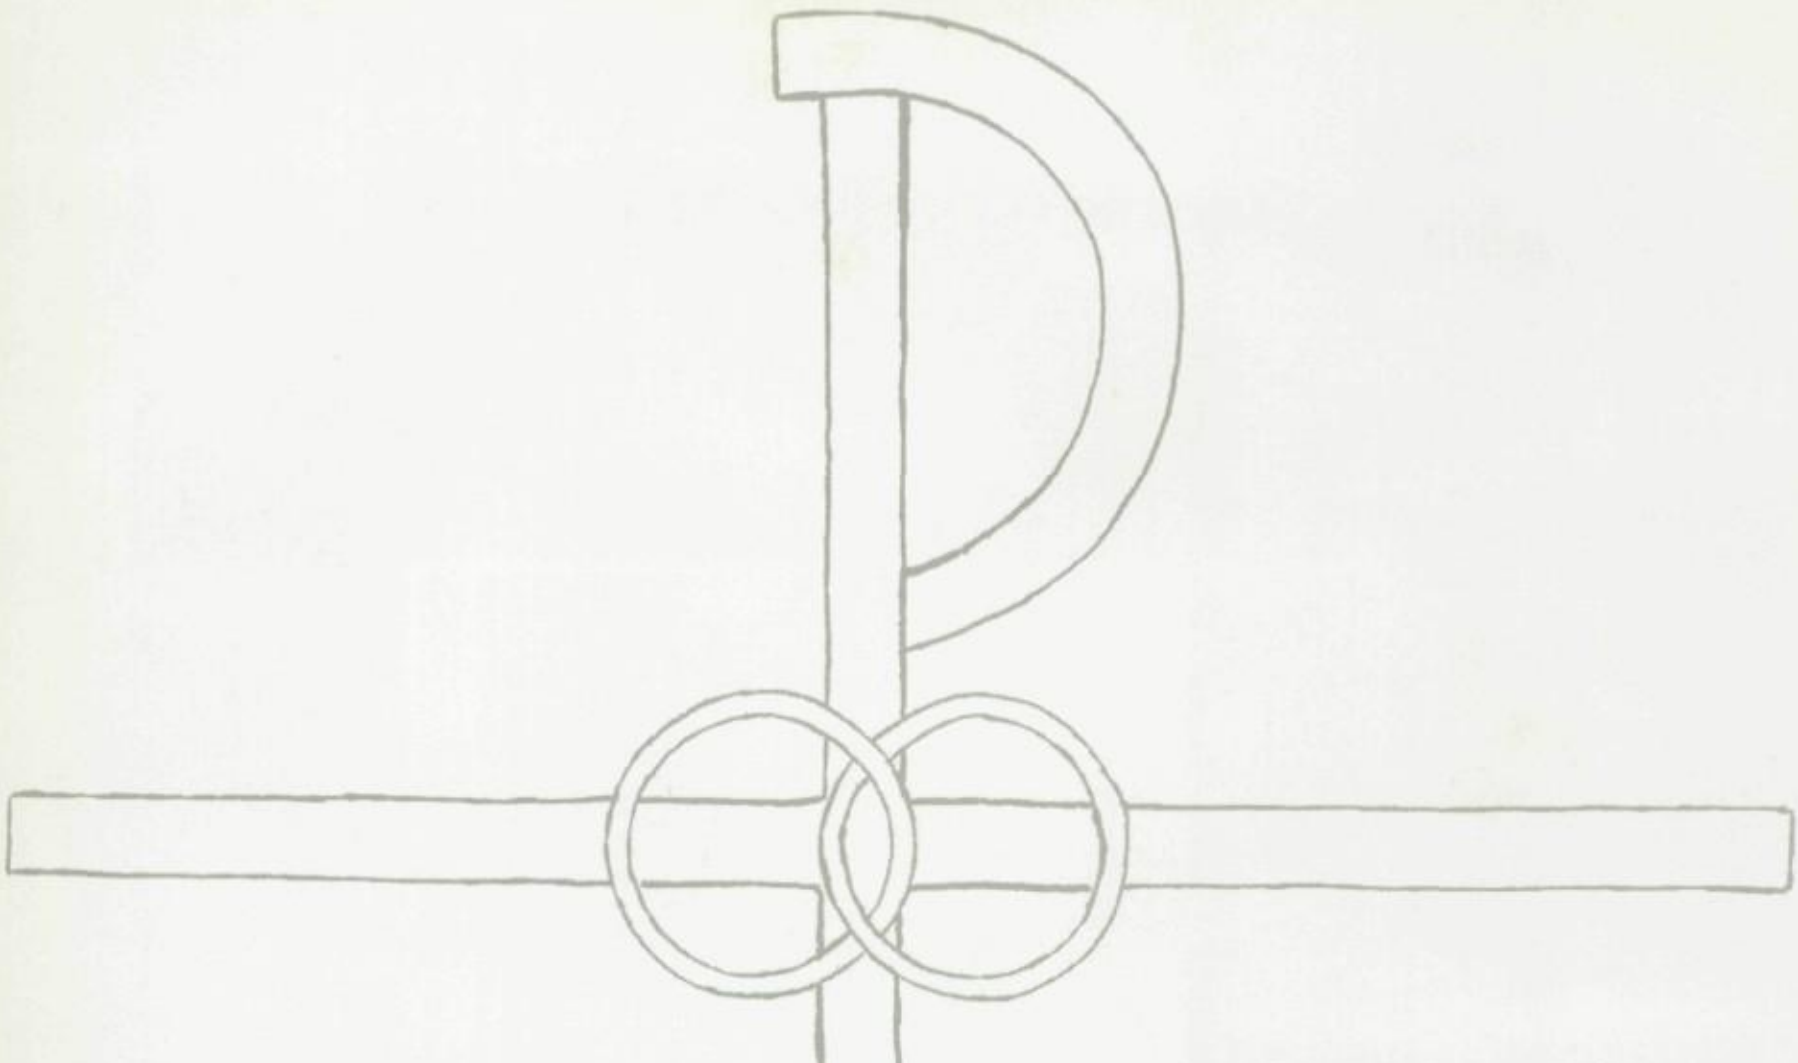
A friendly "hi" is the trademark of the man who never seems too busy for a smile and a kind word.

Although we can never repay you, Mr. Oliverio, we would like to express our sincerest appreciation for all that you have done, and say, 'thanks for everything'.

Thus it is that we, the Seniors of 1965, dedicate this, the 1965 Notre Dame Yearbook, to you, Mr. Pete Oliverio.



Appreciation



As Seniors, we know the price paid for dreaming about great accomplishments when we should be working toward greater goals. This price has been softened and partially borne by the ones who have guided us through the years; the unfailing battlers against our ignorance, insecurity, and loneliness. These are our parents. Dad and Mom, possibly only one remains, have never left our sides, sifting truths from fallacies, correcting us when necessary and leading the way. And so dearest parents, it is with these thoughts in mind that we want to say, 'thank you very much.'

Yet, we cannot dedicate words alone in appreciation to their Herculean sacrifices made for us, we must dedicate ourselves to the goal of a better America. Let us give them the pride of mankind of knowing that they will leave a world made a little better during their lifetime; and give them the boundless joy of knowing that it was you who made it so.

NOTRE DAME HIGH SCHOOL
CLARKSBURG, W. VA.

Dear Seniors,

It is my privilege to express to you the prayers and best wishes for success from the Faculty of Notre Dame High School. We pray especially that as you launch upon your new careers you will put into practice the high ideals and moral standards that now inspire and guide you.

In September, as a stranger among you, I studied each of you as you daily portrayed your personalities. I looked closely and found embedded deeply and firmly those Christian truths that are so much needed by our graduates today. Convinced that you are cognizant of the place you will take in the world and knowing you have found at Notre Dame High School the incentives and ideals that will enable you to do your part in God's plan for you, I ask Our Lady to give you the courage and grace to do all for the honor of her Divine Son.

For each of you I whisper a prayer that you will continue in your friendly, Christ-like way. I pray that God will demand much of you and that He will give you the corresponding grace to be pliable to His needs. May you with hearts and wills tuned to His Honor and glory be the instrument of peace and courage so much needed in this world today.

God be with you!

Sister Anne Patricia

Miss Gloria Tiano is the moderator of the group. The officers are: Pam Fiber, President, Cindy Marra, Vice-President, Debby Fredrick, Treasurer, and Betsy Black, Secretary.

Mixed Chorus

The object of the Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Oliverio, is to provide musical enjoyment for its participants and to give them a chance to develop themselves musically. The frequent practices are well worth it because everyone agrees the music is tops.

Choir

The Choir, directed by Sister Frances Xavier, draws its members from the high school and the grade school. The girls practice every Monday and furnish most of the music for Mass at the Immaculate Conception Church.

Activities

Homecoming

The highlight of the 1964 Homecoming was the coronation of Queen Cecilia Oliverio by her escort Steve Petitto.

Queen Cecilia's court consisted of Judy Chiado, Alexis Julian and Carol Malfregeot, Senior attendants; Kathryn Patsy, Gloria Fragale and Mary Kay Alvarez, Junior attendants.

The Sisters of St. Joseph enjoyed their first Homecoming game.

Retreat

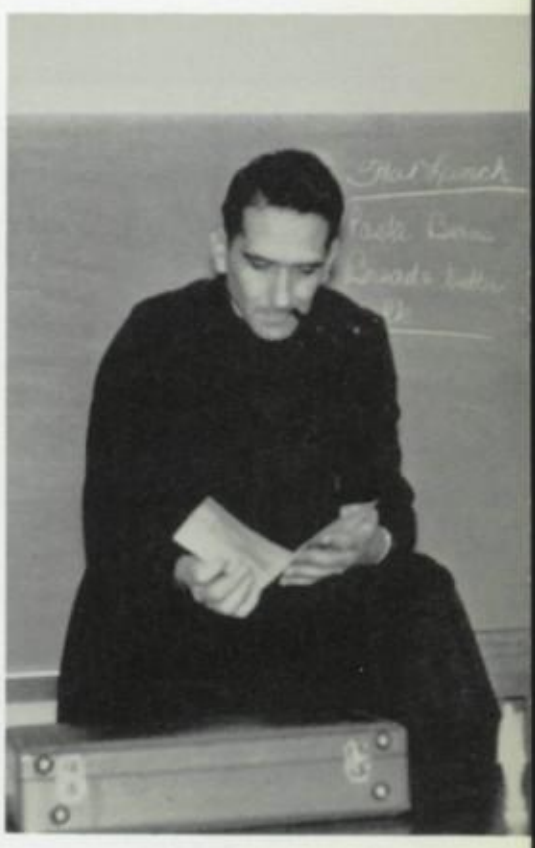
Father Tucker, retreat master, addresses the Notre Dame student body.

Father Eugene L. Tucker, who conducted our annual retreat on November 4, 5, 6, gave a series of very inspiring lectures on subjects ranging from "Confession" to "Marriage."

Vocation Day

Father Schmitt offered the new sung Mass.

Vocation Day, held on December 10, was deemed a success by the student body.



Father Schmitt is preparing for a group session.

Senior boys and girls join in the English Mass.

Mr. Oliverio led us in the singing of the Mass.

Snowball Dance

Angela Abruzzino, escorted by John Grilli, reigned as Snowball Queen at the annual Christmas dance.

Why aren't you smiling, Angela?

Tournament Assembly

Sister Anne Patricia told us just to do our best.

Bob Moine led us in prayer while Sara Brunetti was emcee.

Coach Neeley resounded hopes of victory.

This is Maureen Krosmico, who acted as our mascot, a leprechaun, during basketball season.

These are the Senior basketball players with the coaches.

Our cheerleaders worked hard throughout the entire season.

This was the last assembly cheer for the Seniors.

The Senior Class Play

The crowning glory of the entire play was the presentation of roses to the director, Sr. Mercia.

Sarah Custard be my name, be thou David Hatcher?

The Senior Class of 1965, using two casts, provided two enjoyable evenings of entertainment. Cast I consisted of Gary Marano, Mike Bower, Judy Marra, Colleen Terneus, Joyce Secret, Jo Carol Tenda, Rosemary Caveney, Jim Panetta, Kathy Julian, Joe Garcia, Chuck Diaz, Mike Wuchner, Kay Mills, Angela Mascaro, Bob Baitty, and Eileen Praderio.

That does it! You look just like a ghost.

Have you ever tasted quicksand, Sam?

Are you all right, Dr. Frantz?

Where are your ghosts?

"My Favorite Haunts"

David Hatcher, thou shalt be my apprentice.

Sit down my dears.

Oh no, you don't!

All of Cast II was on stage for the final curtain call. The members of this cast were: Joe Gonzalez, Thom Larosa, Sara Brunetti, Randi Williams, Mary Newhouse, Carolyn Secret, Linda Antrobius, Mary C. Secret, Phyllis Fernandez, Mary C. Frederick, Mary K. Griffiths, Jim Panetta, Chuck Diaz, Joe Garcia, Mike Wuchner, and Bob Baitty.

Dressing rooms are always hectic, aren't they?

Start reciting, Alice.

I have the most curious sensation.

What a ghostly story!

Joe Garcia, what's so funny?

Are they artists or are they artists?

These Key Club members await their dinner at a special banquet given in their honor.

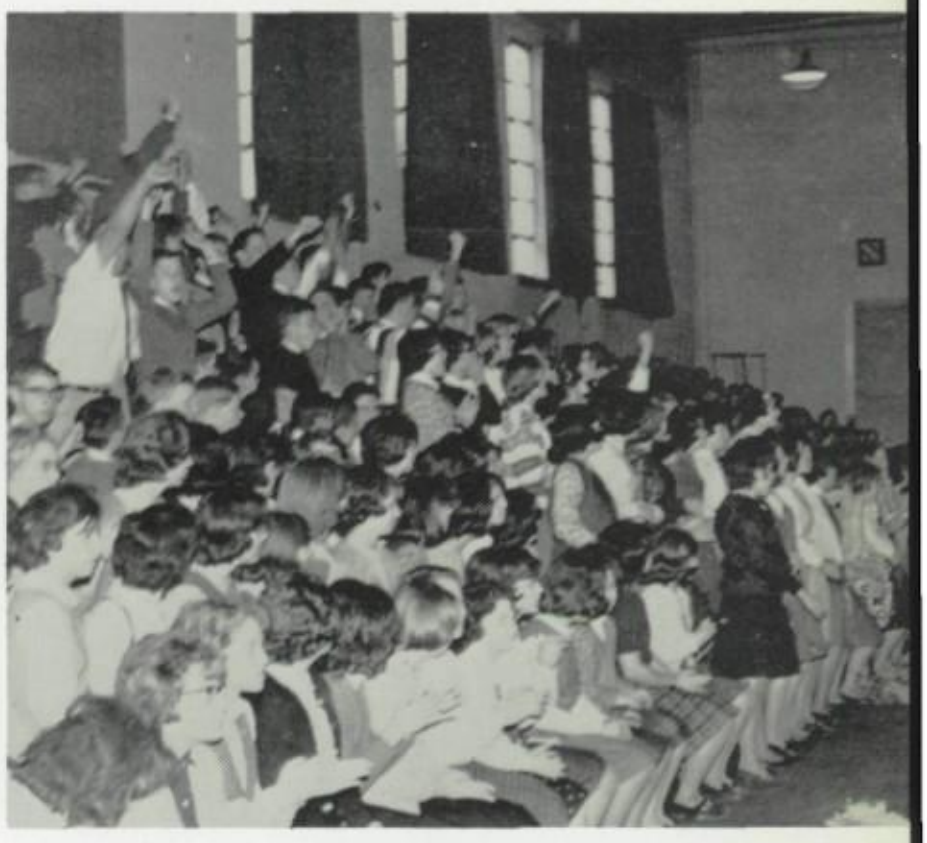
Sodalists travel to Wheeling for a convention.

Herbert Muller of Bolivia is ND's first exchange student.

It's Beatle time!

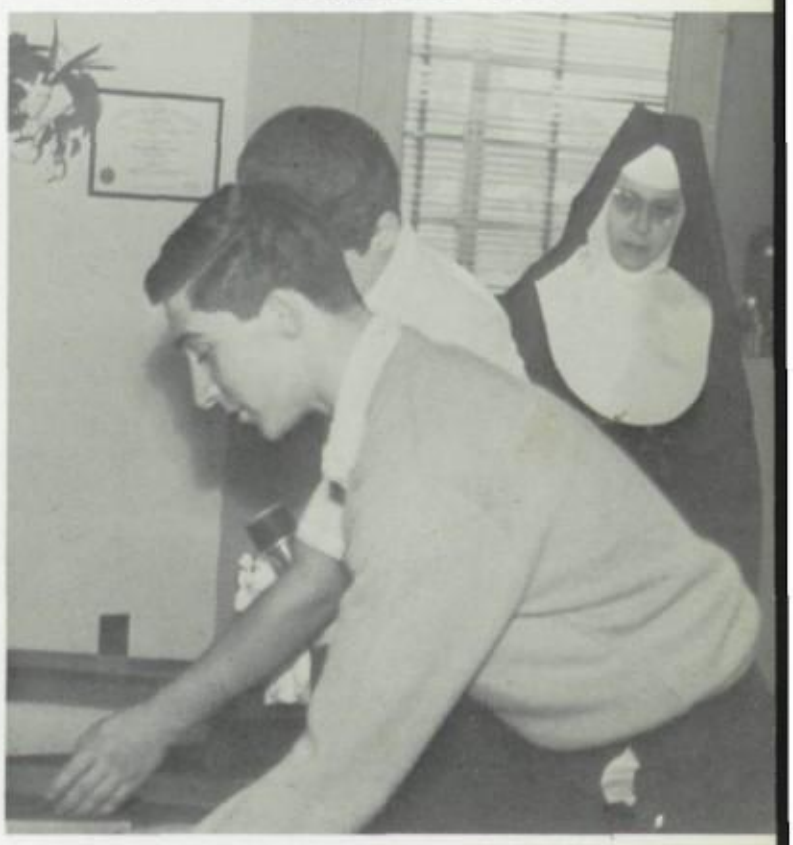
of Memories

The faculty also enjoyed the Key Club banquet.



This is the Sophomore class!

Stop! Sister Grace Madeleine got her picture in the year-book.



Paul Romano and Russell Lopez working. - Never!

Well now, it's like this . . . .

Do Mr. Ellis and Mr. Oliverio have a secret?

Around Our Little World

The Fairmont State Collegiates captivated the entire student body with their singing.

Father Cox was very excited about the arrival of his new pup.

Really there's an invisible ladder!

Paul Espel's use of his height merited him a spot on the Catholic All Tournament Team.

The Girls' Pep Club sat in formation and supported the boys at all home games.

Father Bandiera organized this Student Council assembly.

Kay and Eileen are our debaters.

These boys from Senior 202 took the volleyball championship.

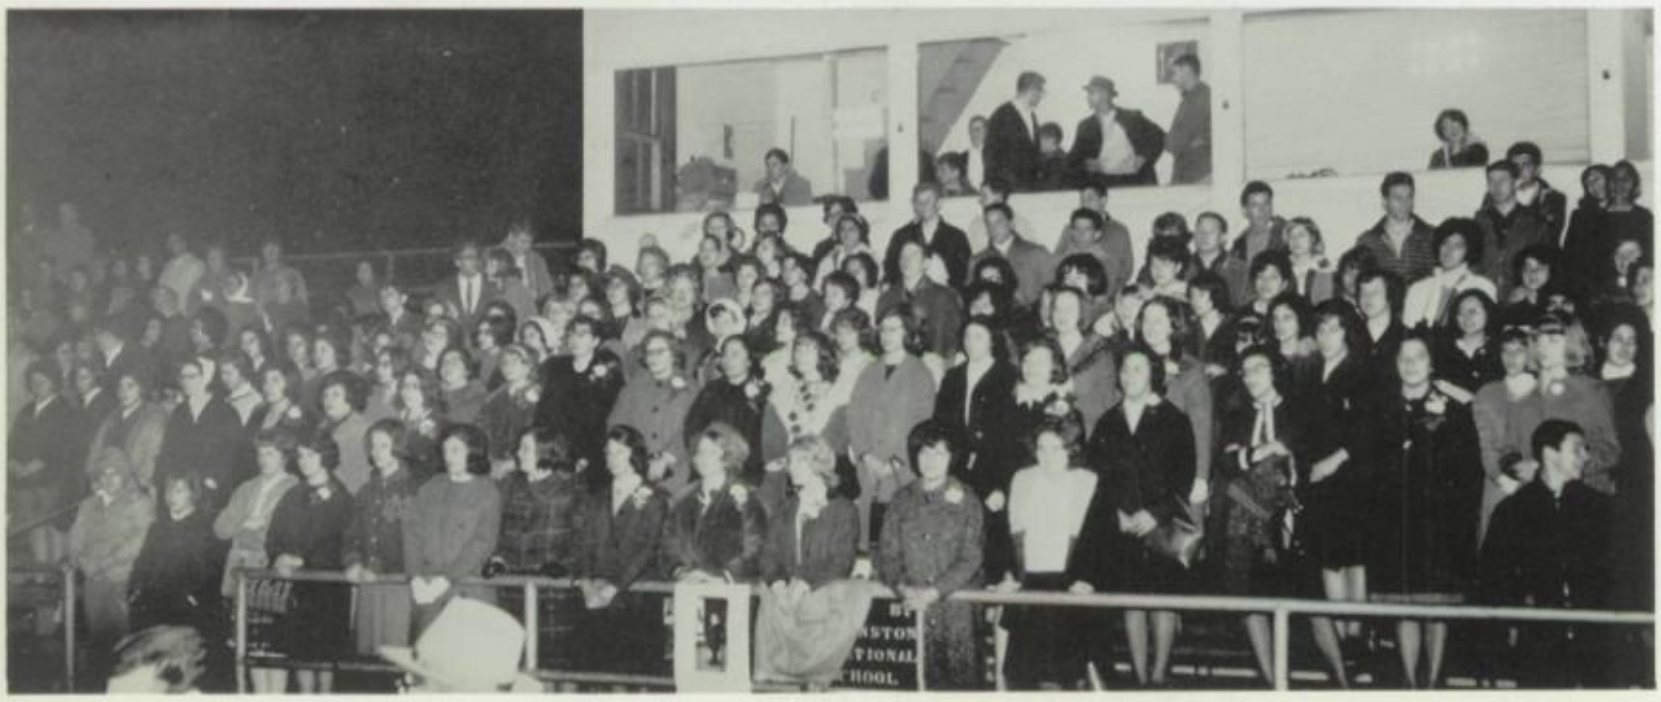
Irish Take

There's Blair.

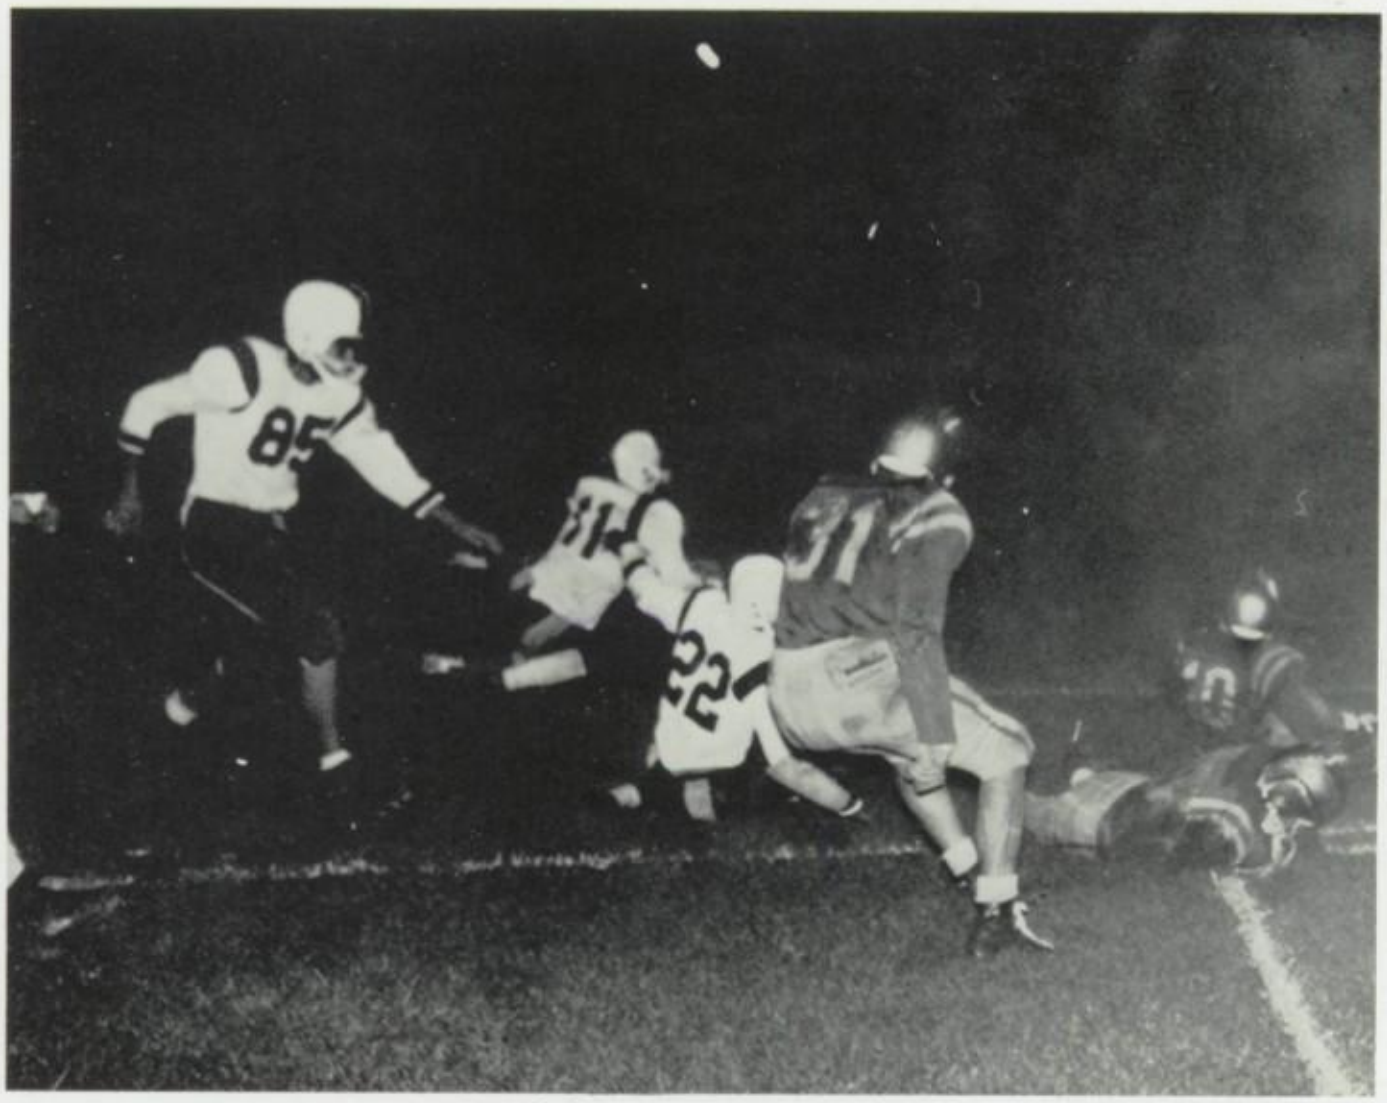
Out of the way folks; here come the Irish.

Practice makes perfect.



Spellbound fans await the next Irish play

To The Gridiron



Touchdown - Notre Dame!

DePolo's on his way.

Well, fellows, we're halfway there.

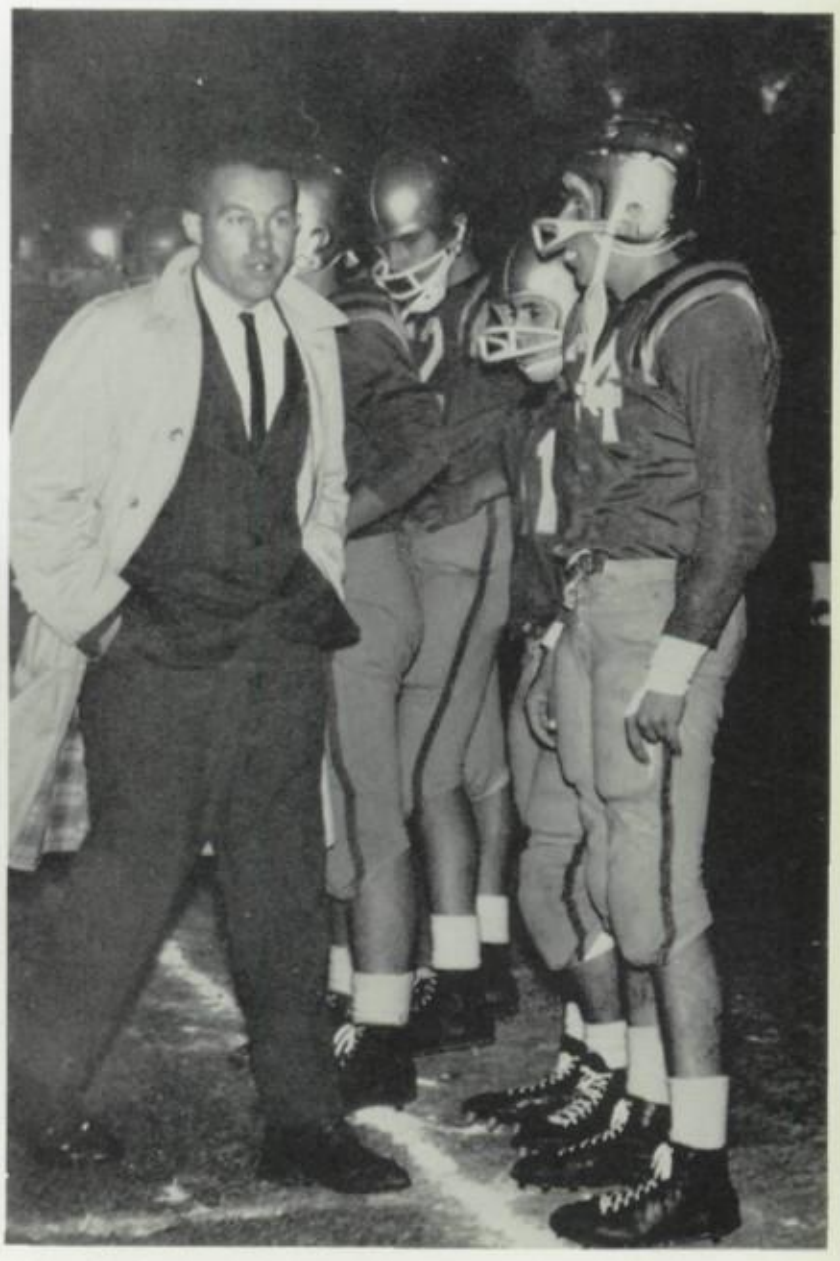
THE ELUSIVE

MR. SCOTT

After the game is over . . .

Fumble - - Irish ball! No, wait - - R.W. recovers!

DePolo hits a solid Eagle wall.



Gee whiz!

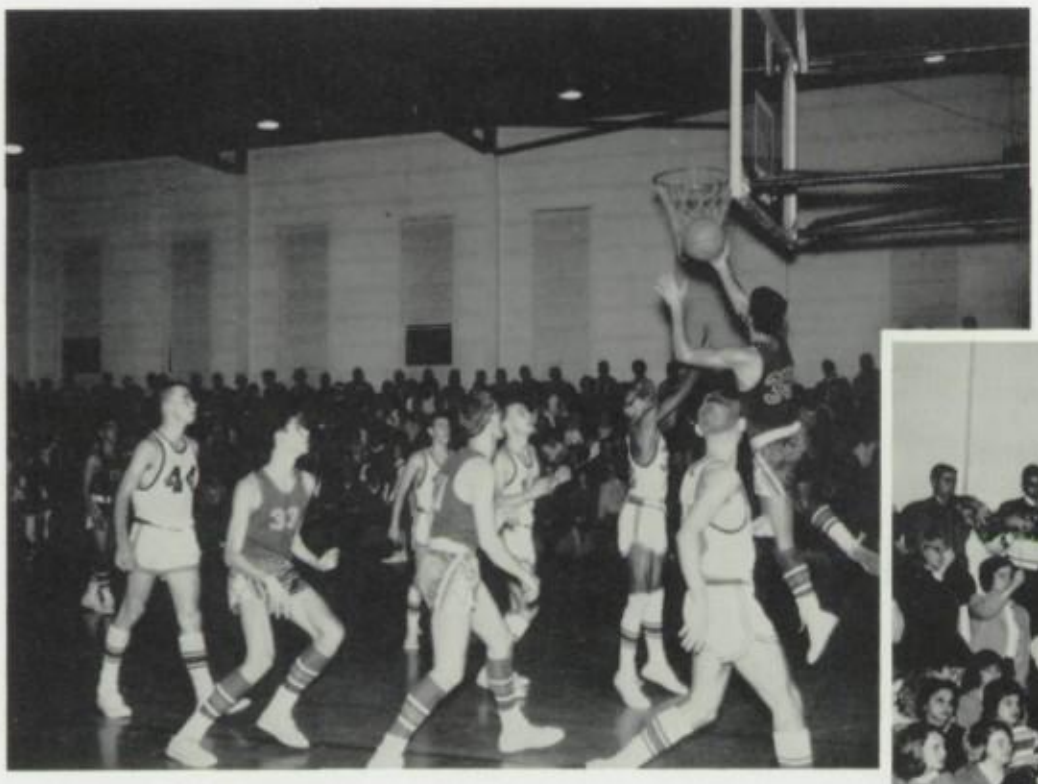
The Story of

Veltri hits in opening victory.

Another game, but the name's the same - Veltri.

Espel and Habeb add four more to the score.

Our Success

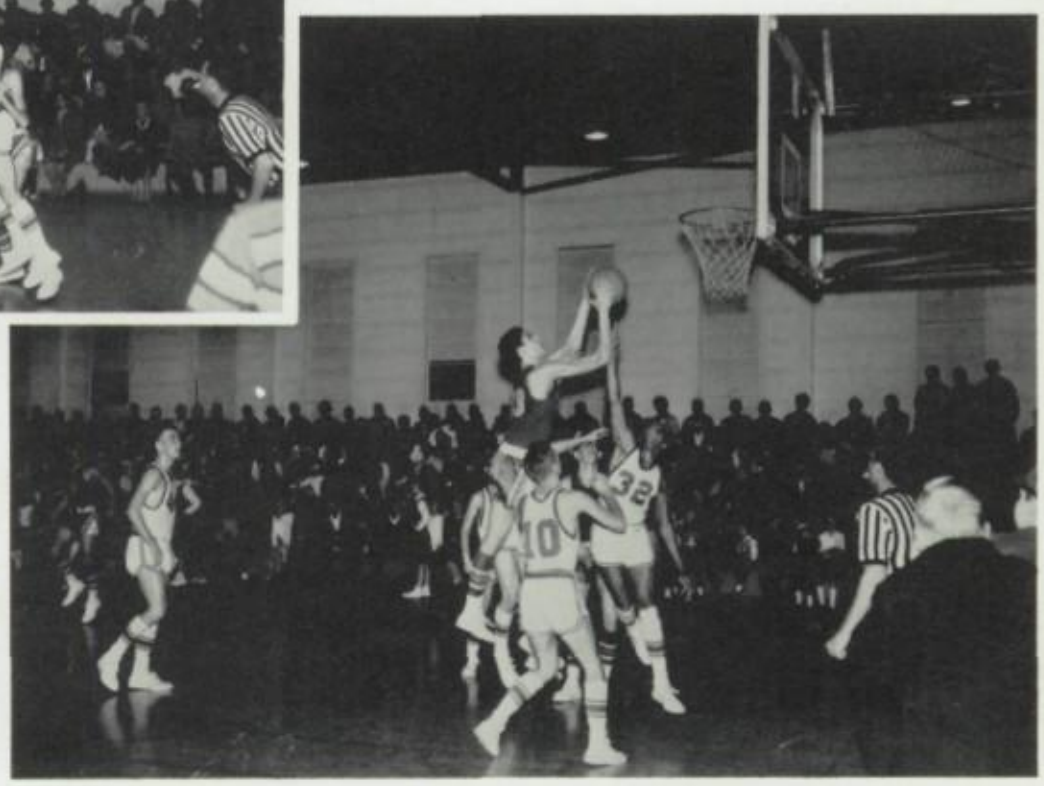


Habeb scores in opening quarter.

N.D. suffers first loss at hands of R.W.

. . . and the crowd roars.

Llaneza racks up two.



Espel goes high for the bucket.

Irish Finish Strong

The captains meet - pre-game instructions.

Early action

Irish control on opening tip.

With Win Over Madonna

Madonna's ball.

The scoreboard tells the story.

Time out - Notre Dame.

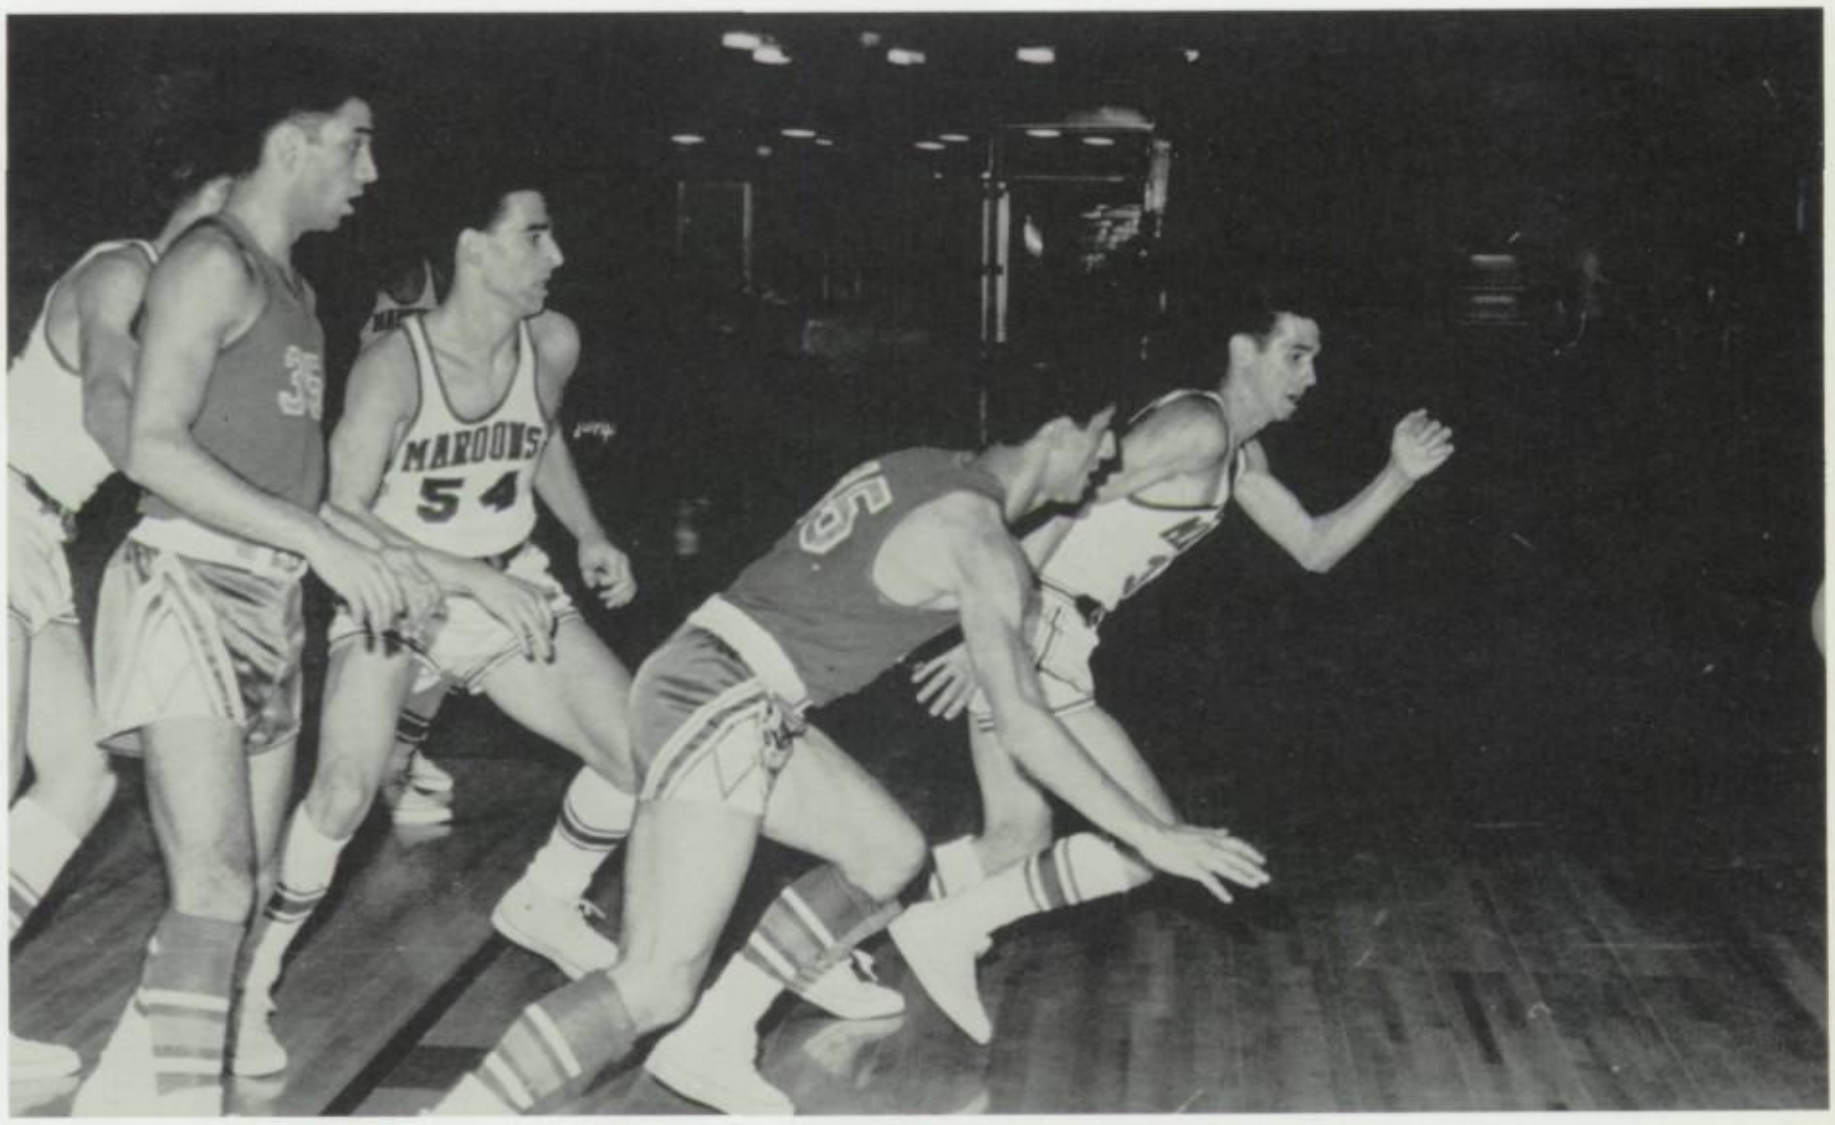
"Twist and Shout"

"What do you mean you've never played before?"

Blair hasn't been playing long.

On your mark . . .

On the bench beside our unworried coach we see Fearless Frank, Vivacious Veltri, Perilous Paul, Meadowlark Llaneza, Sweetwater Scott, Drastic Dave, Big John, Climbin' Carl.



Get the ball you all!

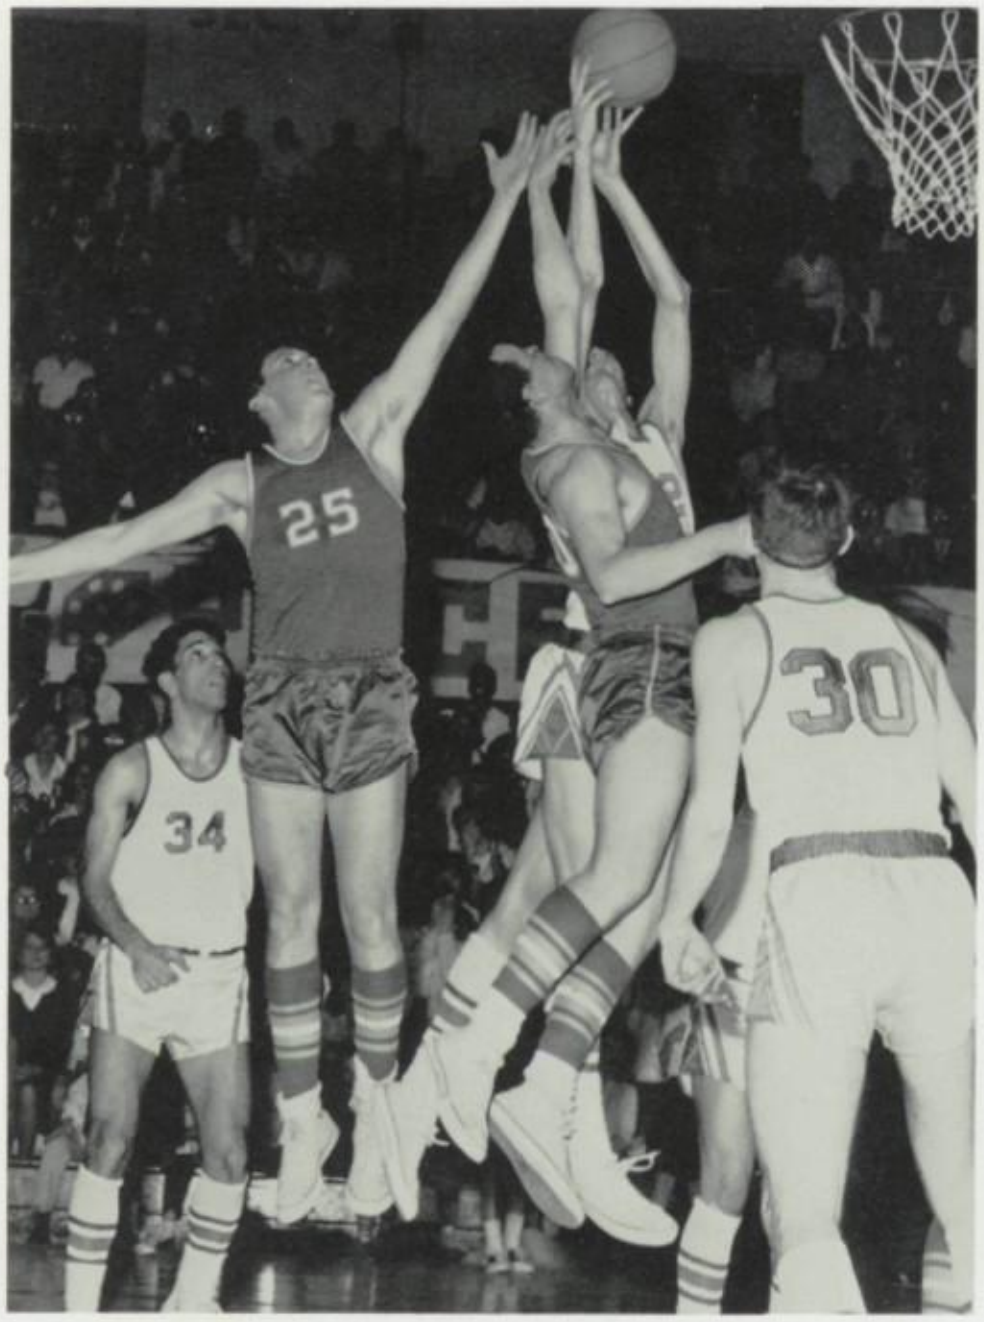
That's Scott for ya.

"What do you have to do to get some privacy?"

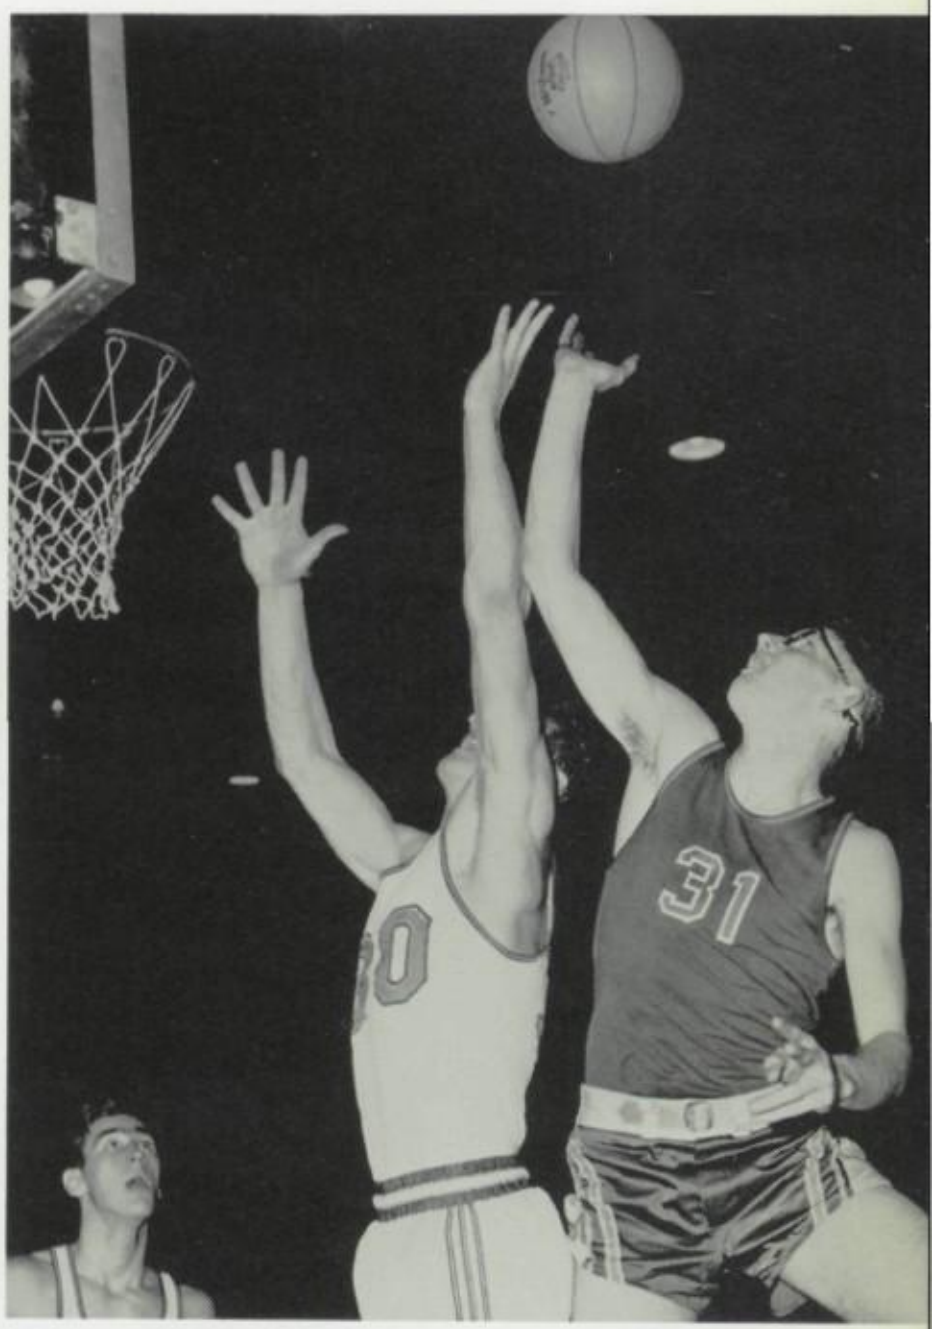
The Pep Club and cheerleaders gave their all for the Irish.

The Irish bring their good luck with them.

Tournament



Espel goes for two more, showing the form that placed him on the All-Tournament Team and enabled us to defeat Parkersburg Catholic.



When two Irish teams meet, it's nip and tuck. Unfortunately, the N.D. Irish were unable to work their charm on Huntington.

Virginia Spenia expresses the emotions of all Irish fans in the closing seconds of the St. Joe's game.

Junior Varsity

Tot,

Dear "J." Janie,

I heare that peeple are supposed to write nice things about people in yearbooks. But unfortunatlly they did not prepare for such a nice girl when writing this yearbook. Although we kid around a lot I really like your a lot. You are one of the nuttiest person I know from 105. Although 105 is full of nuts. We are always sensible, generous kind & loving (Boy what a good liar.) We are two of the most ardent geometry students in the room. When were not hanging paper out the windos, shapening pencils, having erasor fights, looking at pictures, talking (oh excuse me we never talk)! Wait! You and all are talking about diving and thinking about your diving (drives me crazy) Not quite as scared as Someone who only screamed bloody murder when a little old cat was sitting calmly on their windowsmind-ing his own business when this idiot screams her head off. When your not eating dog biscuits, or running after fire trucks that don't ring, and other such intelligent feats you are studying geometrical taking erasor fits or falling off chairs in mixed chorus. Wait! Seeing as tha I'm practially at the end of the page and I am very, very pinged sore I want to thank you for being such a sweet friend this year and I hope there are many following years

Love ya always

Dear Jonnie,

Guess where we are? You guessed it, in our favorite club. I just knew you would like hearing that. I hope we can see a whole bunch of each other this summer. I know we will!!!! Today is the worst day for this club and me. You said to put anything. So here is anything. Merry Christmas, Happy New Year, Happy Easter, Happy Birthday and happy every day. Don't forget I love you, the only trouble you are a girl (I think.)

Be good,

Janey Mills

Dear Joan (Jack),

I have so much to say I don't know where to begin first. This year has been an absolute success in more ways than none. I didn't know you were such a great kid and that we have so much in common. Remember when I wanted you to play for me. What really killed me was that night we stayed together and you climbed that telephone pole. Please don't forget the knife bit and our strangers at the gate! Speaking of unusual happenings, John. How you liked that kiss. I thought sure you had him. Wow I tried to keep everything so secret. After I told you I liked him. I felt my world collapse because I think you expressed, with your face, that you still liked him. For the whole week following, I was half sick over it all. Don't forget Lynn very witty remarks (Woo!). The Party (May 26, 1965) John danced with me every dance almost. I was and still am on cloud 9. Well, that sums up my life history. Your a real cute girl with a fabulous personality and ? ? ? ?.

Love You Always.
